

Amirada Product Database Management

www.amirada.com

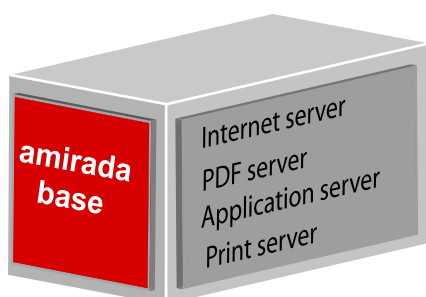

Product flyer

amirada.base

is a powerful object-oriented middleware for databases. altamira.base is fast, reliable and specially designed to efficiently handle multidimensional product data. By default altamira.base provides full range capabilities for different languages, currencies, units and any country-specific settings. Seamless integration into the clients IT is guaranteed. Client/server mode of altamira.base represents a complete enterprise product information system.

Feature list (abstract)

| Function               | Description   |
|------------------------|---|
| Media independent      | Enterprise and company-wide medium-neutral product database with nonj-limited hierarchic levels, class partitionings, objects and variants. |
| International          | Administrates data in all languages specially designed for technical purposes.  |
| Translation Management | Fully Unicode-enabled, it helps global organizations drastically cut translation costs  |
| Internet               | Connectable to web applications and shops.  |
| Expandable             | Software developer kit is included for easy access and use in other applications (e.g. MS-Office).  |
| Classifications        | eClass, BMECat and other standardisations are applicable.   |
| Data types             | Text, memo, numbers, boolean, tables, file references, value references, scripting and others.  |
| Server                 | Realtimeserver for web, print and image processing.   |

All altamira products can be linked over the internet. Thus different locations can share the same data and functions.

SystemRequirements
All Windows systems

Robust Single Source Management

One Instance.
That's all it takes.

Other products
Publishing for Print
Web-content Management
Publishing for Web
Document Management System

More information is available at our web site.

Multi Channel Delivery

One Instance.
Served in many ways.

Amirada Amirada Software
Sophienstr. 165
76185 Karlsruhe
+49 (7 21) 84 08 64 71
info@amirada.com
www.amirada.com